

JENT BODYWORK 101/102 Attendance Information

Pre-Requisites: Safety awareness and kind handling of quiet horses. No other experience necessary.

Class Structure: Limited number of participants to ensure individual tuition, supervision, one-on-one time with the teacher & TA and safety (max 12).

We can only accommodate 6 horses on the day during the class. Two people work on one horse during the practical sessions. If you are bringing a horse, please consider others attending without horses may need to share. Horses that are quiet in company and in good health are welcome.

Guidelines:

Documentation: Color printed Manual is provided on the day.

Attire: Please wear suitable footwear and no perfume or jewelry.

Dogs: Participants are not to bring dogs onto the site.

Mobile Phones: Switch mobile phones off during classes. Use vibrate if necessary.

Smoking: Smoking not permitted during classes.

Parking: Parking is free.

Breaks: Short tea breaks between classroom time and Practical sessions.
40min lunch at 12:45.

Refreshments: Coffee, tea, bottled water and snacks are provided during the day, help yourself any time. A fridge and microwave are also available onsite.

It is strongly recommended attendees bring lunch as class hours start strictly on time.

Horses: If you are bringing a horse please leave the stables as clean at the end of the day as on arrival. We will all pitch in to help.

What to Bring:

A folding chair to sit on during lunch break

Your own lunch and drinking water

If you own a JENT Equine Massager or Red Light of any sort, bring them along

Small mounting block/step ladder to assist in viewing the spine from the rear if you need one

Camera

Clipboard and pen

Audio recording is permitted (not video)
